

Holiday Thanks from Main Street Association

By Letter to the Editor From page A8 | Daily Republic | January 03, 2016

The Fairfield Main Street Association has been making great progress this year and the plans for 2016 look even brighter. This year's Christmas Tree Lighting and Holiday Festivities in downtown Fairfield had the best attendance we've seen in years. Of course, the weather was finally on our side. We want to take a moment to thank the community for coming out to enjoy our events. None of the events we produce could be possible without volunteer support.

In fact, we had our Main Street Appreciation party recently and had the pleasure of presenting some very worthy awards. Our "Volunteer of the Year" went to Justin Nunes (aka Santa) of Parkway Community Church. The "Golden Voice Award" went to Monte Hoover. We have a dynamite board led by a duo whom we affectionately call "T&T", aka Scott Tonnesen and Brian Tubis. Other awards were presented to: "Best Communicator" – Carl D'Agostini, "The Chill Award" – Mario Antuna, "Set Designer" – Barbara McFadden, and "The Ninja" – Rick Wood.

As a grassroots nonprofit, the Association is always seeking volunteers to help with our mission. Please contact us if you want to help improve our downtown. We have a funny saying at the Main Street Association, 'We welcome all ideas and suggestions and look forward on hearing how you plan to implement them.' Our volunteers and board of directors not only have great ideas, they are taking time out of their busy schedules to help us implement them.
