

Members of Chapkis Dance perform during the 4th of July Parade in downtown Fairfield, Wednesday. The Fairfield Main Street Association announced Chapkis Dance won first place in the novelty division. (Aaron Rosenblatt/Daily Republic)

Fairfield

Classic Bombshell Beauties wins 4th of July parade sweepstakes

By Ian Thompson From page A3 | July 09, 2015

FAIRFIELD — The nonprofit group that supports war veterans, Classic Bombshell Beauties, who were modeling vintage fashions going all the way back to World War I, won the grand sweepstakes as the best overall favorite for this year's Fourth of July parade in Fairfield, the Fairfield Main Street Association announced Wednesday.

The Classic Bombshell Beauties and other prize winners will be honored at 6 p.m. Friday in the Fairfield City Council chamber at 1000 Webster St.

The Best Portrayal of Theme Sweepstakes award went to the B-Sharp Academy, according to the Main Street Association. Other award winners in their categories were:

- Business: First place, A Tax Team; second place, A.K. Bean Foundation; and third place, Integrity Auto Collision.
- Church: First place, RCCG Jesus House Solano.
- School: First place, Armijo Indians Cheerleading; and second place, Prado Academy.

- Novelty: First place, Chapkis Dance Family; second place, La Dona Authentic Mexican Food; and third place, Solano Country Queens.
- Music Group: First place, B-Sharp Academy Choir.
- Color Guard/Honor Guard: First place, VFW Post 2333 Color Guard.
- Community Group: First place, American Cancer Society; second place, Punjabi American Cultural Association; and third place, Justice For All.
- Service Clubs: First place, Classic Bombshell Beauties; second place, Matt Garcia Foundation; and third place, Boy Scouts of America, Chief Solano District.
- Antique Auto (1916-1929): First place, Ramirez Towing; and second place, Pete, Cindy and Emily Smith.
- Classic Auto (1930-1949): First place, Matt Rowland and Alex Medeiros.
- Contemporary Auto (1950-1975): First place, Sons in Retirement Branch 106; and second place, Bill Zkarickis.
- Decorated/Custom Auto: First place, Yin McDonald's; second place, Cameron Family; and third place, Miss Armed Forces.
- Military Vehicle: First place, M931 Jelly Belly Crew; second place, Super Mack; and third place, 1944 M5-A4 Cub Scout Pack 100.
- Business/Commercial Vehicle: First place, Ramirez Towing; second place, Superior Tint and Detailing; and third place, Jelly Belly Van.
- Vehicle Club: First place, North Bay PT Cruisers; second place, Classic Thunderbird Club; and third place, Golden Hills Mustang Club.
- Service/Organization/Church Float: First place, Montezuma Shrine Club; second place, DAV Chapter 81-Fairfield/Suisun; and third place, St. Mark's Lutheran Church and Preschool.
- Business/Commercial Float: First place, Republic Services/Solano Garbage Company; second place, John's Hauling and Suisun Valley Antiques & Collectables; and third place, Tri-City Glass and Mirror.

Reach Ian Thompson at 427-6976 or ithompson@dailyrepublic.net. Follow him on Twitter at www.twitter.com/ithompsondr.