

‘Elf’ to offer free letters from Santa at Fairfield tree-lighting event

By Daily Republic Staff November, 2017

FAIRFIELD — Elf Stacy Rose, owner of LegendaryLetters.com, is giving away a free letter from Santa Claus to the first 100 children who write to Santa at her booth during the Fairfield Christmas Tree Lighting ceremony Dec. 1.

The free letters will not be personalized as the other greetings available in her shop. They will still be printed on holiday stationery and be stamped with a faux North Pole postmark.

Rose has been helping Santa write letters to good boys and girls since 1997. She is a member of the Professional Association of Santa’s Elves and is the founder of National Organized Elves League.

This is the fourth year she has done the 100-letter giveaway.

Parents who prefer a completely personalized letter, scroll, certificate or telegram can order at LegendaryLetters.com through Dec. 3.

Children unable to attend the tree lighting may still mail a Letter to Santa in the vintage green mailbox that will be posted at 805 Jackson St. All letters collected in the mailbox and at the tree lighting will go to the Macy’s Believe program, which donates $1 to the Make a Wish Foundation for every letter.