FAIRFIELD — The Fairfield Main Street Association and Sacramento Mobile Foods present this month's Fairfield Family & Food Truck Fair from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. Saturday at Texas and Jefferson streets.

The season kicked off in May. The final event is Saturday. This final event is scheduled to include medical and dental screening vans to provide immunizations and screenings along with informational and activity booths to help people learn all about healthy habits.

Music, vendors and children's entertainment are on the calendar in addition to the various food trucks. The event is open to the public.
